MINUTES OF THE FACULTY - 1956-57

The third meeting of the Rollins College Faculty was held at 4:15 p.m. on Monday, December 10, in the Morse Gallery of Art with the following members present: Mr. McKean, Mr. French, Mr. Anderson, Mrs. Campbell, Mr. Carroll, Mr. Darrah, Mr. Dewart, Mr. Dorsett, Miss Dorsey, Miss Drinkwater, Mr. Eldridge, Mr. Frutchey, Mrs. Gleason, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Grand, Mr. Greenfield, Mrs. Hansen, Mr. Hellwege, Mr. Hufstader, Mr. Justice, Mrs. Kemp, Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Koontz, Mr. Lewis, Mrs. Magoun, Mr. Mendell, Mr. Morgenroth, Miss Ortmayer, Mrs. Osgood, Miss Packham, Miss Patton, Miss Peterson, Mr. Rich, Mr. Rosazza, Mr. Ross, Mr. Rowland, Mr. Sauté, Mr. Shelton, Mr. Shifalo, Miss Shor, Mr. R. Smith, Mr. Z. Smith, Mr. Stock, Mr. Stone, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Vestal, Mr. Wagner, Mrs. Watson, Mr. Welsh.

President McKean opened the meeting. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved. President McKean announced his Christmas dinner for the Faculty to be held at 6 p.m. at the Beanery to be followed by Dean Enyart's reading of "The Christmas Carol."

Dean Darrah moved that the faculty no longer participate in the annual Senior-Faculty Skit. The motion was seconded by voice vote and approved by voice vote.

President McKean announced the appointment of the following members to the Board of Editors to determine what material Rollins College will publish through the New York University Press: Dean French, Mr. Carroll, Mr. Carter, Mr. Granberry, Mr. Greenhut, Mr. Hanna, Mrs. Hansen, Mr. Stone.

Dean French reminded the meeting that new courses to be included in the catalog should be submitted promptly so that they may be approved by the Faculty-Administration Committee.

Dean French moved that the College Calendar submitted for 1958-59 be accepted; this was seconded by Mr. Smith and approved by voice vote.

Dean French moved that the following new courses for winter term be approved:
English 451w--Seminar in Greek Drama. Sir Richard Livingstone. One hour.
Philosophy 407w--Plato's Republic. Sir Richard Livingstone. Two hours.
Art 326, Advanced Design of the Home, Joseph Shifalo. Three hours.

These were approved by voice vote.

The proposed new form of grade report was presented by Dean French for the Faculty-Administration Committee; he recommended that the revised report form be adopted. Mr. Carroll seconded the motion. Mr. Thomas suggested that an extra copy of the report should be made for the adviser. The motion was carried by voice vote.

Dean French announced that a one-hour non-credit course for freshmen orientation had been recommended by the Faculty-Administration Committee. This course would probably be offered B period on Wednesdays throughout the first term. The possibility of eliminating seminars and offering only 3-hour or 4-hour courses was discussed.

Dean French stated that the Physical Education Department recommended that, since physical education grades no longer are included in the student's average, these grades now be recorded only as satisfactory or unsatisfactory. The grade report form would not be used. Voice opinion appeared to approve this plan.

The suggested new rules for the Pelican were next presented by Frank Wolfe and the other members of the student committee:

1. Drinking: There will be absolutely no drinking of alcoholic beverages on College property. Any drinking while attending the Pelican will be considered a violation of this rule with the exception of an organized party at which beer and soft drinks may be served.
2. Curfew: All students must check in at the Pelican by 12:30 a.m. and must retire to their respective quarters by 1:30 a.m. Any students leaving the general area of the Pelican must notify the chaperone first.
3. Behavior: Conduct of the students at the Pelican shall at all times be within the bounds of good taste. This shall apply to dress, manners, and morals. In any questionable situation, the case shall be referred to the Pelican Committee. The Pelican Committee may then be held responsible to the Student-Faculty Discipline Committee to account for its action in the case.
4. Enforcement of Pelican Rules: It shall be the responsibility of each student to obey the above rules. It shall be the duty of the president or a member designated by the president of the social group attending the Pelican to assume responsibility of the conduct of the group as a whole. The president or his representative shall cooperate with the chaperone and the managing couple in the administration of these rules. It shall be the responsibility of the chaperone and the managing couple to report any infraction of these rules to the Pelican Committee. If any infraction is reported, the president of the social group having had the Pelican when the infraction occurred, shall be called before the Pelican Committee. (This action shall begin within 72 hours after notice of the infraction is received. If the president cannot place accurately the responsibility for the infractions the group as a whole shall be penalized.)

Mr. Rich inquired how the Pelican Committee would be appointed. The Committee would be appointed by the President of Student Council, and would consist of five members and one alternate from different social groups and would be responsible to the Student-Faculty Discipline Committee.

After general discussion, Mr. Mendell moved that discussion of the Pelican rules be tabled until the first faculty meeting of the winter term. This was seconded by Dean Darrah.

Dean French stated that the students hoped this matter could be settled before Christmas, so that the Pelican could be set up for their use after Christmas.

After discussion, Mr. Lewis moved that the Faculty meet on Thursday, December 1. at 4:15 p.m. to consider the Pelican rules further. Motion approved by show of hands.

The meeting adjourned at 5:45 p.m.
